Road Rules

As a bicycle rider you are riding a 'legal' vehicle. You have the same rights and responsibilities as any other vehicle on the road. As such you are required to obey the road rules, including stopping at red lights or stop signs, giving way as indicated by signage and giving hand signals when changing direction.

Key Road rules that apply to cyclists include but are not limited to:

1. All cyclists are required by law to wear an approved helmet. The Police will fine cyclists who ride without an approved helmet
2. Cyclists can ride in bus, transit and bicycle lanes.
3. In Western Australia cyclists can ride on footpaths unless prohibited by a sign, but must keep left and give way to pedestrians.
4. Cyclists can ride 2 abreast, but must remain within 1.5m of each other
